

Mission Statement

North Seattle Community College provides a supportive, responsive teaching and learning environment distinguished by its commitment to openness, innovation, and excellence in education.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

Towards fostering student success

Towards building a safe, productive and supportive work environment

- Towards ensuring that diversity as a value permeates the culture of the institution
- Towards developing a realistic student enrollment base that is sustainable
- Towards fostering decision-making that is based on clearly defined principles and participation
- Towards improving the administrative processes and communication
- Towards achieving fiscal stability and flexibility