ASKING OPEN QUESTIONS
(LISTENING EXERCISE)

Interview someone you know about an event or an issue that is important to him or her. Using the Awareness Wheel, ask that person open questions to fill out their story. In other words, you are Person "C" listening to them as Person "B" talking about a Person or Issue “A”. Put what they share with you from their point of view in the diagram below.